START HERE – Is material published or unpublished?

Unpublished → Are you the author who will reproduce it and it is from your personal collection?

- YES → Either PUBLIC DOMAIN or NO PERMISSION REQUIRED
- NO → Is creator alive?
  - YES → Either PUBLIC DOMAIN or NO PERMISSION REQUIRED
  - NO → Did creator die at least 70 years ago?
    - YES → Either PUBLIC DOMAIN or NO PERMISSION REQUIRED
    - NO → Is rights holder known?
      - YES → You need to obtain and submit the described permission to SISP to reproduce the material:
        - Material owned by SI – Unit permission form, SISP's "Permission Request for Third-Party Materials," or an email thread from the unit's authorized rights coordinator.
        - Material owned by individuals – "Permission Request for Third-Party Materials."
        - Material owned by museums – SISP's "Permission Request for Third-Party Materials" or, if it includes same open access rights, the rights holder's form. If the owner grants a "standard license" (e.g., Open Access at the Met, Wikimedia Commons), provide PDF of web page detailing terms.
        - Photo and object in photo owned by different parties – In addition to permission from the photographer or image owner, SISP may require additional permission if the artist of the work depicted is alive and/or represented (e.g., by Art Resource).
        - Images scanned from book – Low quality so not ideal, but for open access, could be Fair Use. Consult SISP.
        - NOTE: Libraries cannot license content from books in their collections in lieu of parties that own copyright.
      - NO → Is there a credit line in the original source that identifies the rights holder? Look for a name on side of figure, in caption, in "credits" section, in acknowledgments.
        - YES → You need to obtain and submit the described permission to SISP to reproduce the material:
        - NO → Back to: Is it public domain? Does one of these apply?

Published → Is it public domain? Does one of these apply?

- Published before 1927.
- Created solely by a U.S. government employee as part of his/her official duties.
- Published 1927–1977 without © notice.
- Unpublished, created before 1902, and author death date unknown.

See other, less common PD criteria at https://guides.library.cornell.edu/copyright/publicdomain

- YES → Either PUBLIC DOMAIN or NO PERMISSION REQUIRED
- NO → Is rights holder known?

SISP cannot accept • permissions with terms that restrict SISP from fulfilling its publication plan; • verbal reassurance that materials are in the public domain with no supporting detail; • email correspondence, except for individual owners or SI units; • any document that names Smithsonian or SISP or SI staff as licensee or that requires a Smithsonian signature; • any foreign-language document.